87th Auction

Saturday, 11 May 2013

Our forthcoming May auction in Frankfurt is the perfect platform to present your timepieces and obtain optimum prices.

The reasons are obvious:

History – for nearly 40 years we have specialised in auctioning valuable collector’s pieces.

Reputation – each and every one of our auctions reinforces our outstanding name as one of the leading players in the international market.

Future – we are working today to build an infrastructure and cultivate important contacts in Asia, one of the primary expanding markets of the future, yet we remain of course prevalent in the existing major European and American markets.

Strength – we provide reliable and realistic estimates with honest and precise descriptions in all our catalogues. Our internet pages are a source of carefully researched information as an invaluable service to buyer and seller alike.

Experience – Stefan Muser is renowned as one of the leading experts in the field with more than 30 years’ experience in evaluating and handling collector’s pieces of the highest quality. His numerous publications in the specialised press speak for themselves.
